

An abstract collage of various geometric shapes, including circles, triangles, and lines, in shades of gray and black. The shapes are layered and overlapping, creating a complex, textured background. The word "CHANGES" is centered in the middle of the image, overlaid on a large dark circle.

Dedication

Each year one of the most difficult tasks faced by the students of Chowan College is that of selecting the one to whom the yearbook should be dedicated. Every student has an opportunity to cast a vote after considering the possibilities before him and characteristics such as personality, testimony, love and spirit always play an important roll in the decision.

Upon thinking of these characteristics, we feel that the person chosen this year stands among the great ones who have previously attained the goals embedded in these things so important in life.

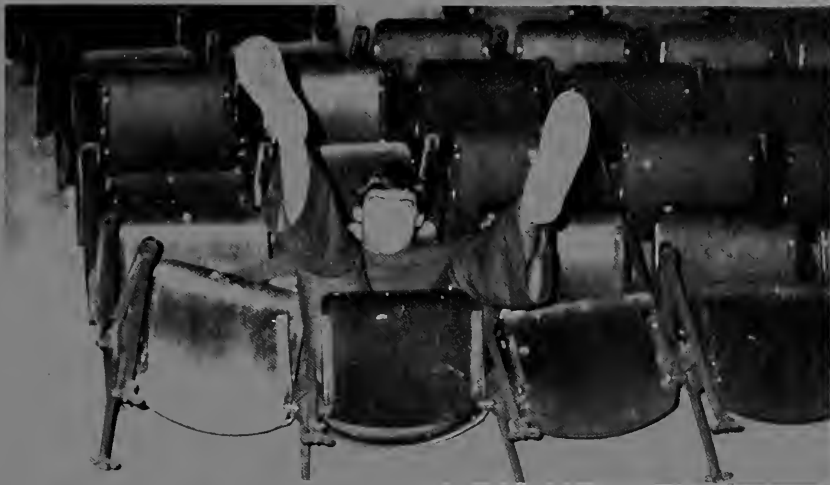

In the one hundred and twenty-seven years of Chowan College's birth and growth many people in the eddying stream of leadership have given the best of themselves to grant our college its reputable position in educational challenge and spiritual guidance affording the atmosphere in which young minds grasp and grow. It is to one of the best of these that our dedication is addressed.

To one who has exposed us to an incomparable dignity and discipline. To one who has led us in an awareness of things around us, our capabilities and an awareness of ourselves through special faculties. To one who has made education a fresh experience in the classroom and a rewarding experience in every phase. To one who remains to us a statue among youth — ultimately an individual, teaching, paradoxically, pride and humility, one who is a part of the institution and apart in being an institution himself.

It is therefore through an awareness of these things that we proudly dedicate the 1975 CHOWANOKA to MR. ROBERT W. BROWN.

Changes — Each of us have gone through many in our lifetime, but now is the most important time of change in our life. A change that will allow us to come out of college prepared to meet the world knowing we each have something worthwhile to offer. We are learning to recognize our fellow students, help one another, work together as a unified team.

... be an individual, stand on our own two feet, improve ourselves, make our decisions, do our own thing!

... become involved with others, give of our selves to one another, enjoy all the good times and cope with all the bad.

Population

The student body was made up of many different kinds of people: blacks, whites, freaks, jocks, residents and commuters, all of us contributing a part of ourselves. Our thoughts and our actions were what made Chowan College the place it was. We learned to give and take and share equally. A little of our privacy was given up as a result of living so close together but we learned so much from each other that it was all worth while.

Sometimes our differences led to clashes and sometimes they brought us together. Some of our acquaintances affected our lives deeply and will never be forgotten. Others will never be remembered. And who knows how many of our friends we'll ever see again.

To always keep these people fresh in our minds, we present to you the human population of Chowan College.

Practical Procedures

Our main purpose for coming to Chowan was to continue our education. Why else would we cheerfully get up at 8:00 each morning and work ourselves to a frazzle by the end of each day?

With this in mind our faculty and staff worked diligently in preparing lectures, tests and other learning activities which would make our goal a little more interesting.

But as the economy crisis affected us all, we soon learned that some of the familiar, friendly faces would not be returning the following fall.

So here preserved for all time are the faculty members of the 1974-75 academic year.

Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker

In March, 1957, Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker was elected by the Board of Trustees as the 18th President of Chowan College, and assumed those responsibilities on May 15, 1957. Since that time, Dr. Whitaker has been an example to students, faculty, and staff alike as he strives to maintain his pledge to "uphold and promote academic excellence and the Christian concept of life."

During the past 18 years, President Whitaker has provided the finest kind of leadership for the College during its period of greatest expansion, and his dreams and hopes of making a "good college great" have become a reality. Many of the hardships and details of building and expanding were worked out through the combined efforts of the Board of Trustees, the Board of Advisors, and President Whitaker. The results testify to the ability, experience, and understanding he brought to these tasks. His service is significant in interpreting to the Church and to the community the aims, ideals, and progress of the college for he has a thorough knowledge of the requirements of higher education in the needs of our own institution and he pursues diligently that course of action which promises the greatest good for Chowan College, its student body, and its staff.

Dr. Whitaker takes pride and pleasure in the achievements of the "college family" whether it be students, faculty, or staff and encourages all with whom he deals to develop their best talents. He expects of others no more than he demands of himself in discipline and dedication.

He is known throughout North Carolina and in many, many other states for the zeal with which he tells the Chowan College story, and his benefit to this institution and on the national level is incalculable. We are indeed proud to be a part of an institution which has Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker serving as President of the College.

Pastimes

What would college life be without them? We found plenty of things to do to idle away our time!

The Student Government Association, which picked up after a slow beginning, sponsored one concert each semester, with the fall concert featuring Brownsville Station, and the concert for spring was Charlie Daniels and "Cowboy." One dance each month featured a variety of bands and also a variety of themes. The "Fifties Dance" held in the early spring was a tremendous success, with students dressed in the popular attire of the 1950s, and also a costume Halloween Dance proved a good occasion. In addition to these activities, the SGA sponsored many free movies on campus.

The remainder of our entertainment was derived from our own imagination, with businesses in the downtown area offering a dance each week. Inflation hit us also, with the cost of those things we enjoy rising along with almost everything else. There were frequent parties at the recreation area, at the pits and at other town spots we had claimed as "our own." Of course, there were the traditional Homecoming and Spring Festival activities, both of which were large successes.

There were fall days when a few rambunctious students took it upon themselves to bury fellow students in piles of leaves which had covered the campus, and there were also winter trips to the ice skating rink in Greenville which afforded many of us an opportunity to learn a new pastime.

But as spring approached with its warm and sunny days, we pulled out our "ten-speeds" and took sight-seeing excursions in the area, and frequently camped out. And as the weather grew warmer we headed for the "sun and surf" at nearby and distant beaches.

Registration

Perhaps one of the more tiring tasks of any Chowan student is registration for classes, held at the beginning of each semester. After spending hours with academic advisers, we arrived at Marks Hall at the appointed time, and waited in line for admission to registration. Our credentials were checked, are re-checked, and then we made our "mad dash" to various rooms in hopes of getting the "right class at the right time with the right professor"! We registered for labs . . . then classes . . . were assigned a chapel seat number . . . registered our cars . . . and finally, we arrived at check-out.

"Silent Snow, Secret Snow"

"Silent Snow, Secret Snow," a one-act play by Conrad Aiken, was presented by the Chowan players during December. Directed by Mrs. Nan Truesdale, the cast consisted of Kevin O'Keefe, Earl Vowell, Cathy Cave, Andy Grimes, Nelson Nichols, Betsy Guerdi, Lina Knight, Tracy Vowell, Bill Roseman, James Clemon, Eliane Heathershaw and Mike Hallis. Prior to the performance, Shannon Leahy gave a reading of her poems.

On September 18 and 19, the Division of Drama, Department of Fine Arts, presented "Impromptu," a one-act play written by Tad Mosel. Making up the cast were Earl Vowell, Vicki Jones, Kevin O'Keefe, and Elaine Heathershaw. The performance was under the direction of Mrs. Nan Truesdale.

Chowan's Department of Drama presented "The Roar of the Greasepaint, The Smell of the Crowd" during the fall semester and the production was a tremendous success. Making up the cast were Earl Vowell, Tim Thompson, Vicky Jones, Chris Beatty and Lycurtis Satterwhite. Also, Tony Brewer, Cathy Cave, Betsy Guedri, Andy Grimes, Elaine Heathershaw, Nelson Nichols and Teresa Pike. The sets were constructed by Ray Davis and James Luxford. Mrs. Nancy Truesdale directed the performance with Dr. James Chamblee as musical director.

Homecoming 1974

The highlight of the fall semester each year is observance of Homecoming, and on Saturday, October 5, 1974, Miss Wanda Davidson of Aulander, was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1974 by President Bruce E. Whitaker. Miss Davidson is a secretarial administration major, and her selection as Queen was by vote of the student body. Elected Freshman Princess was Miss Christina "Kiki" Poll of Moen, Truk. Members of the Homecoming Court were Donna Newsome, Paige Heishman, Betty Jo Taylor, Beth Freeman, Faith Oakley, Theresa Selby and Karen Bennett.

Participation

It was through sports and clubs that we revived old interests and kindled new ones. Through sports we learned to work together as a unified team and to share triumphs and tragedies. School spirit soared and competition was running high. Chowan kept in fairly good standing in almost all its sports.

We set goals and strove for them through activity in organizations. Many community service projects were completed and many hobbies were caught up. We met people who had common interests and tried to cultivate these interests.

Serving On College Committees

Opportunities to participate are available for Chowan students through service on the various college committees which function throughout the year with administrative duties. Every committee has several students as members with full voting rights and with the same responsibilities and duties as other members, who may be administrative officers, faculty or staff members. It is not possible to picture each of the groups, but representative photographs are seen at right. The student body is represented on the following committees:

Student National Education Association

The Student National Education Association involves students in the search for answers to questions of what is worth learning and what are the best methods for learning it, questions that have puzzled Americans since they first determined to educate everybody, not just the aristocratic few.

SNEA members have a chance to do something. They are needed as teachers' aids in the local schools: classes are overloaded; intelligence levels vary drastically and many youngsters need individual instruction; directors are needed on the playgrounds.

And Chowan students are enthusiastically welcomed by the children because the students are young--more like older brothers and sisters instead of teachers.

The club also gives members an opportunity to meet and exchange ideas with students from other colleges, because SNEA is the student division of the National Education Association, represented in this state by the North Carolina Association of Educators. In the spring, representatives from all North Carolina colleges and universities (Chowan is the only junior college in the organization) hold a convention which includes a dinner meeting, the election of state officers, a joint meeting with NCAE members, and social activities.

In addition to exchanging ideas with students from other colleges, members of SNEA receive the weekly and monthly publications of both state and national parent organizations, which present the ever-changing ideas of Americans--educators, parents, social commentators, and national leaders--on what should be done about educational policies and methods, and report what's new in schools of the fifty states and other countries. The parent organizations also offer students many of the privileges available to professional members, including thrifty tours of foreign countries, where a member can do some firsthand investigation of how other countries manage education--that is, of course, if the member has the time and money to satisfy his curiosity.

Chowan College Choir

Membership in the college choir is open to all students who are interested in choral music. On-campus appearances of the choir include annual Christmas and Spring concerts, and special programs held throughout the year. The Touring Choir is composed of students selected by audition from the college choir. The Touring Choir takes an extended off-campus tour in the spring of each year as well as making several off-campus and television appearances throughout the year. Other ensembles are organized from time to time as the demand and interest exists.

The Chowanoka

The college yearbook is edited by a staff of students with the guidance of several faculty advisers, and many, many hours of work go into the publication of THE CHOWANOKA. The staff is responsible for the layout and design and all printing is done by the Chowan College Department of Graphic Arts and Photography. Serving as Editor for 1974-75 is Dawn Bell of Columbia, Md., with Co-Associate Editors Laura McClure and Jerry Rector. Faculty Advisers for the academic year are Herman W. Gatewood and C. Thomas Nelson, professors in the Department of Graphic Arts and Photography.

Student Government Association

All students of Chowan College are automatically members of the Student Government Association, which offers them opportunities for gaining experience in democratic proceedings and for participating in the operation of the college. Through the Legislature they voice their points of view and recommendations to the college administration. Also, within the limitations of power granted to the association by the President of the College, the SGA administers and enforces regulations governing student conduct. Throughout the year, the SGA also sponsors concerts featuring "big name" groups, movies, and other social events. The officers for the SGA are elected during the spring semester for the following year, and serving as President for 1974-75 is Miss Kathy Challenor, the first woman to serve in this capacity for many years at Chowan College.

Benita Lee Bridgers

Clair Ellen Crickenberger

To be included in Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges is an unparalleled honor, and each year, a relatively small group of graduating students at Chowan College is selected by an anonymous Honors Committee to be so recognized. Selection is made on the basis of academic excellence, participation in extra-curricular activities, and contributions to the life and work of the college community. In addition to local and national publicity that each chosen student receives, his complete biography is published in the annual edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges.

Ministerial Alliance

The Chowan College Ministerial Alliance is composed of those students who are preparing themselves for a profession as ministers of the Christian Gospel. As such, the purpose of the organization is to provide a forum for the sharing of the mutual needs and concerns of pre-ministerial students, and to afford opportunities for engaging in ministry during one's student days.

The Alliance has met bi-weekly throughout 1974-75 — usually with a faculty member or a local pastor sharing some phase of the minister's life and work as the "program" for the occasion. Members of the Alliance have maintained a weekly devotional series over radio station WRCS, Aboskie. The group has also sponsored and conducted devotional services on Wednesday afternoons for personnel on the maintenance staff of the college. Two of the Alliance members have served during the year as full-time pastors of churches in Northampton County, North Carolina, and Greensville County, Virginia.

Apart from these functions, all the members are encouraged to maintain private devotions and Bible study, as well as becoming involved in the various facets of service available through the broader ministry of the Baptist Student Union - Campus Christian Fellowship.

Officers for the Ministerial Alliance for 1974-75 have included: Robert Walker, President; John Carrington, Vice-President; and Robert Wayne Vardell, Secretary. Chaplain Taylor has served as adviser to the organization, with Dr. Earl Parker serving most of the members as academic adviser.

Sociology Club

The Sociology Club is made up of Sociology students and other persons interested in social issues, with the purpose of the club, as stated in the Constitution, to make students more aware of the impact which society has upon their lives, and conversely to show how individuals may have some influence upon society.

Programs held during the year included a talk by a state patrolman, a discussion of drug abuse, and films on abortion and burglary. Projects included volunteer services through the Chowanoke Area Development Association, sponsoring a white elephant sale which netted funds for food for the needy at Thanksgiving time, collection of aluminum for recycling and helping with the Child Development Center in Ahoskie. Members are also eligible for the trip to Washington to visit Congressmen and sit in on Congressional committee hearings, as well as visit other points of interest in the nation's Capitol.

Officers for the year were Frank Lucas, President; David Adams, Vice-President; Joan Ridgeway, Secretary-Treasurer; and Libby Kanipe, Assistant Secretary.

Science Club

The purpose of the Chowan Science Club is to sponsor activities both on and off campus, for those students who have an interest in the science related fields. Club activities in the past included construction of a nature trail through Chowan Forest, glass collections, and scrap paper drives. The club's purpose is a two-fold one: 1) to make people aware of the importance of recycling; and, 2) to use the proceeds of projects to purchase needed equipment for the Science Department.

Student Newspaper

Writing and editing stories, preparing page layouts, setting type, proofreading, paste-up of pages, shooting the negatives, stripping the negatives into flats, burning plates, printing the paper and finally, distribution of the paper. These are just a few of the processes and procedures that go into the production of a newspaper in this fast moving age of technology.

As technology in the printing industry continues to grow, a need for practical work experience for Chowan's printing student was seen. In order to fill this need the first student newspaper, The Daily Chowanian, began production on October 29, 1959. Its editorial content consisted almost entirely of Associated Press news reports.

In 1967 students of Chowan College were asked to submit their ideas for changing the name of the school newspaper, with the name Smoke Signals being chosen and the first issue rolled off the press in October of that year. The theme of the newspaper was also changed at this time, with more emphasis placed on stories concerning the Chowan campus community with articles and features of interest to students.

Today Smoke Signals serves a dual purpose. It continues to provide experience in printing production for graphic arts and photography as well as serving as a medium for expressing opinions of the student body on popular topics. Smoke Signals also serves as a show case for drawings, prints, cartoons, poems, photographs and feature stories prepared by students in the various departments.

The success of the 1974-75 newspaper is largely due to the contribution of various individuals, clubs, college departments and faculty members who have assisted in this year's production. Special commendations are due the faculty advisor, Miss Marianne Pugh, and the School of Graphic Arts. Serving as editor for 1974-75 was Beckie Workman of Marion, N.C., Associate editors were Theresa Pike of Murfreesboro, and Mike Patterson of Knoxville, Tennessee.

Alpha Pi Chapter, Alpha Pi Epsilon

"First in Scholarship, Leadership and Cooperation"

To be eligible for membership in Alpha Pi Epsilon, a student must be outstanding in all college work; a "B" average, or better, on all academic work must be attained. In selecting candidates for membership, the society seeks young people of character, intelligence, leadership, scholarship, and superior competence in secretarial subjects.

The ultimate purpose of Alpha Pi Epsilon is to professionalize the status of the college-trained secretary. To accomplish this, it endeavors to send young men and women of the highest ideals into the business world, equipped with keen intelligence and a mastery of their skills.

Alpha Pi Chapter, Alpha Pi Epsilon, enjoys the status of being a very active and outstanding organization on the campus of Chowan College, and its members have brought national recognition to the chapter and to Chowan College. Students have competed for the "Florence Manning Scholarship Award", a national Secretarial Science Competition, for the past eleven years. For eight years, a student of Alpha Pi Chapter has placed in the top five.

Alpha Pi Chapter undertakes many projects — some of these are: (1) Annual Scholarship Award. A yearly scholarship award of $50 is given to the two-year Secretarial Administration or Business Education student who maintains the highest academic average at the end of two years of study at Chowan College. The organization engages in several money-making projects in order to raise money for this scholarship. (2) Professional Programs. Alpha Pi Chapter, Alpha Pi Epsilon, may serve as hostess for professional programs designed for all students in the Department of Business, such as sponsoring a well-known personality in a business specialty to appear on campus. (3) Service Projects. Projects that will be beneficial to the entire Chowan College student body are sponsored by Alpha Pi Chapter. (4) Chapel-Assembly Programs. Chapel-Assembly programs are a vital part of campus life. Members of the organization may elect to participate in a designated chapel-assembly program. (5) Social Activities. Alpha Pi Chapter members recognize that the "whole person" must not only be academically oriented, but socially and morally, as well. With this realization, many social activities are planned. (6) Annual Fall Initiation. A formal initiation is held in the Fall, by invitation, to qualified students; the Formal Candlelight Initiation is followed by a Banquet Dinner. (7) Annual Fall Reception. Alpha Pi Chapter may sponsor, in conjunction with Phi Beta Lambda, a Fall Reception for business students and business faculty. (8) Annual Homecoming Reception. On Homecoming Day at Chowan College, current members of the organization will serve as hostesses at a Homecoming Reception. All former members, beginning with the 1957 charter members, are invited.

Baptist Student Union- Campus Christian Fellowship

The Baptist Student Union - Campus Christian Fellowship exists for the purpose of fostering both a better understanding and a better exercise of the student's Christian faith. Activities throughout the year have included weekly meetings for worship and fellowship, occasional group Bible studies, and weekly prayer services conducted in the Askew Student Union lounge. Devotional services have also been led by members of the BSU-CCF on Thursdays of each week for the employees of the college cafeteria. Bi-weekly gatherings for worship, fellowship, and recreation have been conducted with and for the residents of Pinewood Manor Rest Home, near Ahoskie, North Carolina.

On the State level, many members of the local BSU-CCF have been involved in the broader programs and ministries of the North Carolina Baptist Student Union. Such involvement has included participation in State conventions and conferences, service on committees of the Statewide organization, and the raising of a rather substantial pledge ($500.00) towards the underwriting of the total budget of the Student Summer Missions project of the North Carolina Baptist Student Union. Most of the monies raised for the project by Chowan students has come through gifts to the four "Youth revival teams" which have been maintained by the BSU-CCF this year, and which have participated in conducting several weekend youth emphases throughout the area. Other funds for Summer Missions and or to meet the local expenses of the BSU-CCF have been raised through ear washes, candy sales, and a BSU-CCF Slave Market.

According to Chaplain Taylor, the Baptist Student Union - Campus Christian Fellowship for 1974-75 has been one of the most active and involved groups of its kind with which he has served as adviser throughout his years at Chowan. Much of the "success" of the group can be attributed to the able and energetic leadership of the student officers for the year: Ernest J. Etheridge, President; Charles Lee Ferebee, Vice-President; Janet Copeland, Secretary; and David Hudson, Member-At-Large to the State Officers' Council of the North Carolina Baptist Student Union.

Delta Psi Omega

Delta Psi Omega is an honorary dramatic fraternity for those students who do a high standard of work in dramatics. It also provides a wider fellowship in the college theatre throughout the United States and Canada.

Day Students

The Day Students' Organization has a potential membership of about one hundred students. Several actively participate in projects that benefit the students and the college. The group sponsors a float in the Homecoming Parade and booth at Spring Festival. The main project every year is raising money for a scholarship which is given to the freshman day student who has the highest academic average and who is an active participant in the organization. Officers for the year were President, Chet Hill, Jr.; Vice-President, Maurice Jackson; Secretary, Benita Bridgers; Treasurer, Nancy Price.

Trailblazers Club

Chowan College's newest club, the Trailblazers, is involving students in one-day and overnight excursions to sites of scenic interest in North Carolina and Virginia. The club promotes appreciation and proper use of our natural resources. The club's first outing was to Seashore State Park in Virginia Beach. This was followed by a trip to the Virginia Blue Ridge mountains. Club advisors are Mr. and Mrs. James Dewar, professors in the science department, and Mr. Bill Powell, head resident of East Hall.

Steichen Photographic Society

Tribute

. . . to an elect lady

Daisy Lou Nixon, wife of former Chowan College president, Forest Orion Nixon has made a total investment of herself for the past 24 years, and is admired, respected, and loved by the entire Chowan College family--students, fellow faculty members, and administrative staff.

As Chairman of the Department of Religion and Philosophy, she is held in high esteem by those who serve with her. She is aggressive enough not to be afraid to express her opinions, yet shy enough to do it with tact and restraint.

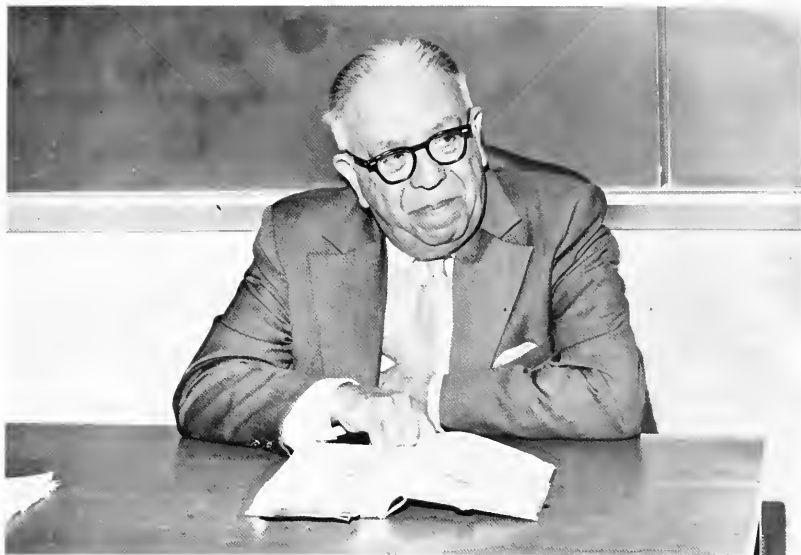

She is modest, unassuming, gets the job done competently, is energetic and efficient. She speaks quietly, but with confidence, is a real Christian friend, fairminded and understanding. On the other hand her merry blue eyes betray a quick and ready wit.

Mrs. Nixon makes continous personal preparation and refuses to condone intellectual mediocrity. She reads widely and is a scholarly thinker.

In the classroom she is always a teacher--demanding, inspiring, stimulating. Her profound understanding of the Bible, her personal commitment to its teachings, and her own love of learning permeate the classroom. Without apology she imparts to students what she herself is in character, interest and devotion.

The investment of her life at Chowan has paid rich dividends, for she has influenced countless people with her unfailing loyalty and dedication to Chowan College.

. . . and a

When Chowan College re-opened its doors to student in the fall of 1948, a few dedicated faculty members recognized the dream of Christian Higher Education and accepted this dream as a personal challenge for their lives. Many of them had that very summer driven miles over surrounding counties and into southern Virginia enrolling young people for the new student body. One such man was Marion Eugene Williams.

Professor Williams began his tenure of service at Chowan twenty-seven years ago. Since that time he has taught French, Spanish, English, and United States History to thousands of Chowanians. He has conscientiously served on college committees, headed various efforts toward improvement, and remained faithful to the ideals of this great institution. It is in the classroom, however, that his greatest impact has been made and for which students across the land will remember him. In the classroom Professor Williams became a true master teacher, the desk being his pulpit, the blackboard his field, and the valuable sermons taught there will continue to echo around the world in years to come.

He was a born teacher. He knew his subjects well and he always remained anxious to impart his knowledge with those fortunate young people who came to him. To Professor Williams teaching was a joy and his enthusiasm was vital and contagious. It would be fitting to say that he had the patience of Job, the understanding of Solomon, and the endurance of the early Christians.

The mark which he has made upon the life and development of Chowan College may never be measured, nor does it need to be. In the lives of thousands across the land may be felt the influence of this great teacher. They will be stronger because of him, they will speak more clearly, and they will agree with Tennyson in "becoming a part of those whom they have met."

It is with sincere appreciation that Chowan College bids farewell this year to one of its greatest, most dedicated and masterful teachers, Marion Eugene Williams.

Another year has come and gone . . . and Chowan has completed its 126th year of service . . . there have been good times and bad ones . . . and following is a "Wrap-up" of 1974-75.

Changes--our hopes were up at the beginning of the year. Spirit was high, the students were united and we had an SGA president that was willing to do what he could to bring about reasonable changes in the social life at Chowan. Unfortunately the students way of bringing about changes and the administrations way appeared to be two entirely different methods. Action was the students way and committees and lengthy discussions were the administrations'. Due to this conflict Drew Rivenbark was unable to set any changes into motion and resigned as president of the SGA. Cathy Challenor took Drew's place, becoming the first woman SGA president in Chowan's history.

Fall semester was disappointing as far as policy changes, but all in all, fun was had by almost everyone. The usual amount of parties, cookouts, and patronizing local entertainment places took place. Campus activities included football games, homecoming, dances, and a few SGA sponsored events, which many enjoyed. The drama club presented several plays which, if students missed, was to their loss, as this was the last year Chowan's drama department would be in existence.

The annual trip to New York made by the Art Department, stirred excitement among the art students and turned out to be very successful and enjoyable.

With the beginning of the Spring Semester, Chowan College, as well as many of the students, felt the nationwide economic depression. Many students were unable to return to college causing Mixon Hall and the second floor of Jenkins Hall to close.

In an effort to retain students and attract new ones, the administration asked each dorm to make a list of student grievances. Meetings were held, opinions exchanged and as a result, some changes came about. The curfew for women was extended, part of Green Hall was converted to a student center and a few changes were initiated in the cafeteria.

Head residents changed places as Mrs. Martha Rock, Belk head resident, resigned and Mrs. Ruth Baker, Jenkins' head resident moved over to take her place. Mrs. Dereathea Thompson moved to Jenkins.

Due to the renovation of McDowell Columns, Chapel was not held in the spring. A worship service was held two days a week at the Askew Student Building.

Also as a result of the renovation, the Spring Pageant was held in Squirrel Park on the day of Spring Festival so that even parents could attend and the carnival was presented in its usual manner.

The spring concert featuring Charlie Daniels and Cowboy, scheduled to be held in the football stadium, was cancelled due to rain and many anxious students left disappointed. The concert was rescheduled for a later date.

The Student Government planned a new spring activity called the "Rites of Spring" so the year drew to a close with fun and games.

That was our year! For the sophomores who will leave Chowan there will be many memories of all the good and all the bad. As tradition goes we will look back on the "good ole days" at Chowan. For the freshmen, there is another year of a lot of fun and many challenges to look forward to. Here's to Chowan, here's to changes. Here's to Chowan and changes.

Well another year has just passed before us. The staff, advisors, and I have tried to cover the year as completely as possible through pictures and copy.

Many long and trying hours were spent in preparing this annual. Without the cooperation of everyone, the task would have been impossible.

I would like to thank those who contributed their time and talent in creating this annual. My special thanks goes to my good friend Betsey Bauer for all the artwork included. I know it took a lot of time and hard work.

The Graphic Arts Department deserves more thanks than I could express. They did an excellent printing job and we really owe everything to them.

I feel that this is one of the better yearbooks Chowan College has had and I sincerely hope that all of you enjoy it.
